

FCC:

I appreciate the broadcast of weather and traffic information by XM satellite radio. This service is within the public interest because it enhances public safety, especially in the event of serious weather or traffic events. Therefore, I oppose any petition which would inhibit XM satellite from providing this important information, especially during emergencies.

Daniel Tisak